Since the devastating earthquake struck Nepal on 25 April, the NGO Pourakhi has provided support for the most vulnerable populations, in particular girls and women and their families in four districts; Dhadhing, Kathmandu, Sindhupalchowk and Kavre. More than 5,400 households in the affected areas have received the essential supplies including blankets, mattresses, mats, tents, rice and noodles.