PROTECTING THE RIGHTS OF WOMEN MIGRANT DOMESTIC WORKERS THROUGH EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS

- Name and address of the employer and worker.
- Address of the workplace or workplaces
- Starting date and duration
- Period of probation or trial period, if applicable
- Type of work to be performed
- Remuneration (at least minimum wage), method of calculation and periodicity of payments
- Normal hours of work and daily rest
- Paid annual leave
- Weekly rest periods (24 hours minimum)
- Social security: end of service benefit; access to social security schemes; maternity leave; medical insurance
- Provision of food and accommodation, if applicable
- Freedom to communicate with family and friends
- Passport, visa, documentation
- Occupational Safety
- Joining or forming associations and trade unions
- Skills training and professional development
- Dispute resolution and settlement
- Terms and conditions relating to the termination of employment, including any period of notice
- Terms of repatriation, if applicable
- Freedom of movement

PASSPORT